Services Monday For Mrs. Baird, 88, At Nashville, Tenn.

Funeral services were held Monday in Nashville, Tenn. for Mrs. James H. Baird, a long-time resident of Pascagoula who died in County Hospital Saturday following a lengthy illness.

She was 88 years old.

She was the widow of the late James H. Baird, who until his death in 1916, was editor and publisher of the Nashville Southern Lumberman.

Mrs. Baird, who lived at 1251 Beach Blvd., in Pascagoula, was mother of James R. (Pete) Baird, writer for the Times-Picayune in New Orleans.

She is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Guy Lyman of Pascagoula; two sisters, Mrs. E. B. Martin of New Orleans and Mrs. R. L. Steams of Tucson, Ariz.; four grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

The funeral was conducted at 4 p.m. from Martin Funeral Home in Nashville. Interment was in Mt. Olivet Cemetery there.
